New to the Flathead, a Back Country Powder Session for Elite Adaptive Athletes.

Adaptive Athletes Nationwide are Encouraged and Invited to Experience the Outdoors in Northwest Montana.

Whitefish, MT December 27, 2015: DREAM Adaptive Recreation along with Great Northern Powder Guides are proud to offer for the first time in the Flathead Valley a Back Country Powder Session geared specifically for elite adaptive athletes. The session is open to skiers and snowboarders nationwide. The Back Country Powder Session will be based in Whitefish, Montana with on snow days scheduled at Whitefish Mountain Resort as well as northern region of the Stillwater State Forest where Great Northern Powder Guides are based. The event will take place February 27th – March 3rd. With this 5 day session, athletes will receive 2 days of professionally guided back country skiing/snowboarding service, two days at the resort, as well as lodging and meals that cater to powder hounds with disabilities. The session is for independent, intermediate to advanced skiers and riders. Fees do apply.

Events like this are necessary to bring the adaptive athlete to the forefront of the recreation world. DREAM strongly believes that adaptive athletes break barriers physically and emotionally while increasing the quality of life. Spaces are limited. If you are interested in attending the session or have questions please contact DREAM Adaptive Recreation at 406-862-1817 or email info@dreamadaptive.org.

“Building Confidence and Encouraging Independence, One Activity at a Time.”
